Rebecca R. Yearick from the Cumberland County Housing and Redevelopment Authorities spoke at the last meeting in March.

She calls herself the "Downtown Upturnist" or Cumberland County's Retail Recruiter. She gave us a list of commercial projects in the works from her report to the Board of Directors, Downtown Carlisle Association. It is a lengthy list and some will take time and money to accomplish, others are nearing completion now. South Side Deli will open a second location at the corner of College and B Streets in May; an Antiques dealer from York County is looking to open a new shop in Carlisle; Dino and Pat Craig have revamped 32-34 W. Pomfret St. and are ready to lease, several upper-floor studios are already leased.

One thing worth noting was the great success of the Ice Art Festival in February. The event drew thousands of out-of-towners to downtown Carlisle; many of whom are sure to return for other events.

Attendance: 19 The club pays for 20 dinners minimum.
