Susan Murray finally becomes a member

I told Susan that she finally came of the age to join the Exchange Club. Given our average age of members she was previously just too young.

Jean Yufer sponsored her (not her past president and secretary husband John Murray) and she was inducted into Exchange at the first meeting in October.

As a non-member these last several years she has done more for the club than most members have. She is the premier hot dog saleslady at our twice a year Coffee Break, hawking the tubular treats as breakfast sausages to sell her first one at 6:30 AM. A few years back she was involved with the YMCA and discovered that the Exchange Club could help out by sponsoring the Wet & Wild Easter Egg Hunt at the "Y" pool, where many folks had fun AND learned about Exchange. Other things involved the Summerfair children's activities day and the "bubble art" stand sponsored by the Exchange Club. Sometimes the Exchange Club was the only activity there. Again, many folks had fun AND learned about Exchange. She stood in the cold with the rest of us when we used to sell hotdogs outside Walmart and collect donations for ParentWorks, and she stood in the heat giving out flags at GiveAKidAFlagToWave for Summerfair. Oh! And then there was Ice Cream Fundae for Pressley Ridge, where she hawked "Exchange Delight" until we won 3 silver ice cream scoops out of 4 tries.

Her energy and enthusiasm are boundless. I'm sure everyone will say, "Thank you, Susan, for finally joining the Exchange Club." Things can only get better from here, right?

Mike Garland, Media Specialist at Carlisle Events was our guest speaker at the first meeting in October. Carlisle Events puts on the Car Shows and Auctions here in town, where Exchange parks cars at the K Street lot for the Fall and Spring Swap Meets.

Mike had a rendering of the Concours at Carlisle Luxury Auto Condos that will be constructed at the old Masland/Lear plant location now owned by Carlisle Events. The starting price for a condo in this gated community will be $200,000. Contact Nathan Kranz at 717-461-5947 or ConcoursatCarlisle@gmail.com to customize your new car condo today!

The guest speaker from Domestic Violence Services of Cumberland and Perry Counties (DVSCP) at our second meeting in October was Ms. Dorothy Andrews.

Mission Statement: DVSCP supports and empowers those who are experiencing domestic violence and promotes non-violence through social and systems change.

Violence takes all forms. It can include...

Emotional Abuse: Ignoring, humiliating, embarrassing, insulting, excluding or using social status as a weapon.

Verbal Abuse: Shouting, threatening, intimidating, or manipulating.

Physical Abuse: pushing, shoving, hitting, kicking, punching or threatening with a weapon.

Sexual Abuse: forced kissing or touching, any unwanted sexual acts, unprotected sex, and rape.
